Are you seeking funding for your business? Not sure where to start?

The current economic recovery is heavily dependent on the growth of trade in the SME sector, yet many business owners are unsure what finance or investment is available to assist in the growth of their business or how to apply for it. Leading business angel network, Beer & Partners, is confronted with these issues on a daily basis. Beer has decided to organise free 'SME Finance Clinics'.

Beer & Partners is partnering with Pro-Manchester, GM Chamber and Baker Tilly to deliver the series of Finance Clinics. Business owners and entrepreneurs are invited to book a 30-minute one-to-one informal discussion, with no obligation, to discuss options and ideas on how they may raise finance for their enterprise.

The next Clinic is taking place on Tuesday 6th December from 5pm to 7pm, at the Manchester offices of Baker Tilly.

Oli Randell, Manchester based associate for Beer & Partners commented on recent feedback from local business owners:

"With the Banks, NWDA, Business Link and other public bodies scaling back activities, local businesses want friendly access to information on what financial support is available and how to apply for it".

Oli adds:

"These clinics will be very informal but we believe the wide and varied experience within our North West team could prove extremely useful to business owners in 'one to one' sessions".

Further Finance Clinics are scheduled to take place on a regular basis throughout 2012 – please keep an eye on the website for further details: www.fundingforgrowth.co.uk
